870. SHRI RAJU PARMAR:
SHRI BHAGATRAM MANHAR:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the India Institute of Public Administration, New Delhi has issued an advertisement in the 'Times of India', New Delhi on 16th January, 2002 inviting potential candidates for the posts of Professors, Associate Professors and others;

(b) whether it is a fact that there is no mention of the qualifications, experience, aptitude and age for the potential candidates in the advertisement and sufficient time has not been given for applying to the posts;

(c) if so, the reasons for ignoring these important aspects;

(d) whether Government would enquire into the matter and release afresh and proper advertisement; and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI VASUNDHARA RAJE): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) Indian Institute of public Administration (IIPA) has informed that it has been their practice to mention only the brief details about the vacant positions in the advertisements to reduce advertising costs. The presecribed application form along with detailed eligibility requirements are made available to the aplicants free of charge on request.

While the advertisement appeared on 16.1.2002, the last date of receipt of aplications was 9.2.2002. As such, the Institute felt that the time given was reasonably adequate.

(d) and (e) No inquiry is necessary in this regard as the practice followed by IIPA appears to be fair and does not merit any intervention by Government.
